Heritage Sunday Observed At Mt. Comfort

"Heritage Sunday", May 23, at Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church was a day of fellowship and spiritual renewal for the approximately 200 members, former members and friends attending.

In keeping with the Bicentennial theme, the program presented "This Is Your Methodist Heritage" by Birdie Harvey, and "This Is Your Mt. Comfort Church Heritage" by Vickie Moore. Otho W. Martin, Jr. served as Class Leader, now known as Church School Superintendent, and the pastor, shown above in buggy, The Rev. Leon Lawrence gave the morning message.

Picnic Lunch was served at noon, using many old family recipes. The dress and costume worn by those attending were also in keeping with the Bicentennial theme. The Lewis family made transportation reminiscent through the use of their horses, buggy and wagon.

In the evening, a program of music was presented by the visting group, The Fellowship Four and Jackie, also shown above, along with the congregation singing old hymns.

St. Luke

After the stormy weather Saturday and early Sunday morning the clouds lifted and the rain ceased and at 10 a.m. a clear day was present. Many friends and members of the Cornerstone Baptist Sunday School Union meet at the W. O. Grove Baptist Church on May 30 to enjoy the program and services for the day. Rev. L. M. Venerable, president, was present and presided over the meeting. As usual the opening devotions were inspiring. Rev. Hendricks, pastor, was present. The youth program, as conducted by Miss Bonnie Robinson, was a highlight. Rev. Hendricks gave a great message on "God Will Supply Our Needs." The offerings were good a total of $325.75 raised.

The ladies of the church served a bountiful lunch. Another feature of the day was "The Canada's Day" honoring Mrs. Louise Canada for a loyal service to the union as secretary for 35 years. Mr. D. L. Moore was M.C. and the program opening song-Day about of union; Mrs. Walton at the piano; scripture, Rev. Hendricks; Prayer, Rev. J. E. McLaughlin. One of Mrs. Canada's favorite songs, "Christ Is All You Need" was printed in the program and sang in her honor; History in high points by Miss Randolph, from St. Luke, Mrs. Sadie Scott, generally from Union, Rev. T. M. Venerable.

Donations of money from schools and gift items were presented and personal donations from friends also were given to Mrs. Canada.

The Union presented to her an engraved plaque of appreciation for the services rendered as secretary so long. Rev. McLaughlin presented a nice amount from Mrs. Canada's church, Sunday School and community and other friends that was taken up for her secretly. He also recited the hymn "He'll Understand and Say Well Done".

After this a most beautiful decorated table, coming out the Red-White and Blue was set with a large sheet cake with the words engraved in the icing, "We Love You Mrs. Canada." This was printed on the napkins, also a large square of white with the words painted in to "We Love You Mrs. Canada" placed where Mr. and Mrs. Canadas are humbly thankful to enjoyed cake and cool punch. Quite a moving an impressive affair.

Rev. Venerable, the president of the Union that this should be done in honor of the
